like common salt. We stand right behind every package of Saltone with our

It Pays.

It pays to wear a smiling face And laugh our troubles down;
For all our little troubles wait Our laughter or our frown.
Beneath the magic of a smile Our doubts will fade away.
As melts the frost in early spring Beneath the sunny ray.
It pays to make a worthy cause By making it our own.
To give the current of our lives A true and noble tone.
It pays to comfort heavy hearts, Oppressed with dull despair.
And leave in sorrow-darkened lives A gleam of brightness there.

Strengthens Weak and Tired Woman.

"I was under a great strain nursing a relative through three months' sickness," writes Mrs. J. C. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., and "Electric Bitters kept me from breaking down. I will never be without it." Do you feel tired and worn out? No appetite and food won't digest? It isn't the spring weather.
You need Electric Bitters. Start a month's treatment to-day; nothing better for the stomach, liver and kidneys.

The Usual Result.

An old negro went into a drug store in Richmond, Va., and said: "Boss, will you please, sub, call de Colonel on de telephone?" This was done, says the Argonaut, and the old negro said:
"Colonel, dat ar mule done stall right in de main street, right out here in front of de store. Yaas, sub; I done tied strings round his ears, but he didn't budge. What's dat? What's dat? Yaas, sub, I built a fire undur him, but it didn't do nothin' but scorch de harness.
Yaas, sub; yaas, sub; I took de things out, but he wouldn't budge. Yaas, sub; yaas, sub. What's dat? No, sub; no-sub, Colonel, I didn't twis' his tail.
Yaas, sub; yaas, sub, another gemman twis' his tail; he look like a Northern gemman. What's dat, Colonel? Yaas, sub, dey tuk him to de hospital."

A Few Thoughts on Co-op- eration.

The first form of co-operation is with yourself. The first way to co-operate with yourself is to get into line with nature and health. Get enough sleep.
Keep clean. Don't worry. Eat spinach.
Co-operate with your family. Be on time. Do your part. Think up a few pleasant stories to tell at meals. Don't make the family table a general scrapping ground.

Co-operate in business. Pull with the men around you. Don't pull against them. No man will ever succeed who has not learned how to work smoothly with other men.

Co-operate with your neighbors. Attend to your own business. Discourage gossip. Think and speak well of people. Don't always be looking for trouble. Keep your backyard clean.

Co-operate with your city. Post yourself on civic questions. Read both papers. Vote according to principle and for men with good records, regardless of party.

Co-operate with the nation. Post yourself on national questions. Learn to discuss them intelligently. Make up your own mind. Don't be herded after the manner of sheep.

Last, but most important, co-operate in the spiritual world. Listen for the call of the still, small voice. Do not disregard your intuitions. Do not crush out your inspirations. By co-operation get into line with the unseen world. It surrounds us, like the atmosphere in which we live.

Co-operate not only with those who live in the present, but with those who lived in the past and with those who will people the world in the future.—

The Missouri Hen.

Here is a pen picture of the Missouri hen, drawn by Governor Major in his speech to the Missouri Federation of Commercial Clubs, held at Jefferson City.

"The Missouri hen lays 24 eggs for each man, woman and child in the United States.

"The output of the Missouri hen is $50,000,000 per year, which exceeds the wheat crop in the whole State of Arkansas for any given year, the entire cotton crop of the States of Florida, Tennessee and Louisiana and the gold produced from the earth of Arizona, Colorado and California.

"If the eggs laid annually by the Missouri hen were placed end to end they would reach around the world four times.

"If the Missouri hen cackled every time she laid an egg (allowing by all the laws of science that her cackle would be heard 100 yards and that each hen in turn took up the echo), the announcement would reach 6,250 times around the world—and that is going some!

"In the egg laying contest the Missouri hen took the prize of scoring 280 in one year. If this same hen—the Missouri hen—could be placed in proper file and taught to scratch systematically, she would have dug the Panama Canal while the Federal government was breakfasting over the proposition."—Farmers Home Journal.

The Origin of Dixie.

The Wall Street Journal in reviewing the London Times' history of the Citizens' Bank of Louisiana at New Orleans, the bank that after eighty years of honorable history was converted into the Citizens' Bank & Trust Company in 1911, gives an interesting account of the origin of the word "Dixie" as applied to the South.

The Citizens' Bank was so closely identified with the South that it gave it the name "Dixie Land," since preserved in the famous Southern war song "Dixie." It came about in this way: Prior to the Civil War in the States, the Citizens' Bank had the power to issue paper money notes, just as the bank of England does to day. These bills were issued in denominations of ten dollars and twenty dollars, to the extent of a few millions. The ten-dollar bills were more common. They were well known, and passed all over the country.

These ten-dollar bills were engraved in French, and on the backs they bore very prominently the French word Dix.
The ignorant Americans living along the upper Mississippi River, not knowing how to pronounce the French word, called the bills "Dixies." Finally the bank's money became so popular that Louisiana was referred to as "The Land of the Dixies," or "Dixie Land." Afterward the term was made to apply to all the Southern States.

The new Way ~
A Hoosier Cabinet makes a Model Kitchen

Why Do 700,000 Women Own Hoosier Cabinets?

When you know that 700,000 women use Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets three times every day, doesn't it suggest to you that you need this drugery-saver in YOUR kitchen?

Figure it out to yourself this way: Would they have bought these cabinets without convincing themselves that they SAVE MILES OF STEPS and hours of time? Would so many have bought them at all if users hadn't told others and thus influenced their friends to buy them.

Since this means that more Hoosier Cabinets have been sold than all other 128 makes of cabinets combined, isn't it proof enough that the Hoosier is the best cabinet on the market?

When you see how the Hoosier groups four cupboards around a large metal table and places 400 articles at your fingers' ends so you can sit down and work -AND REST while working—you'll want one of these "White Beauties." Come pick one out today.
